WV Wing Supplement 1
CAPR 20-1
1 August 2003 |

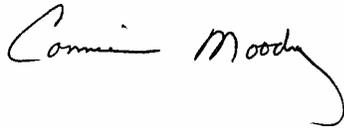

Organization and Mission - General

ORGANIZATION OF CIVIL AIR PATROL

CAPR 20-1, 29 May 2000, is supplemented as follows:

Part III. FAA Inspector

In a positive effort to support the Civil Air Patrol's Accident Prevention, which fosters and promotes aviation safety, this supplement establishes the position of FAA Liaison Inspector. The FAA Liaison Inspector will act as a direct advisor to the Wing Commander, and will be assigned at the Wing Headquarters. The position of FAA Liaison Inspector represents a simple and logical evolution of effort between the FAA and the Civil Air Patrol. The Wing Commander shall request the FAA Accident Prevention Specialist or another Aviation Safety Inspector from the nearest Flight Standards District Office to fill the position of FAA Liaison Inspector. They shall:

CONNIE MOODY, Lt Col, CAP
Administrative Officer

Promote a strong, active accident prevention program.

Maintain close liaison with the Wing Commander, Wing Director of Safety, Wing Director of Operations, and the aviation safety problems and insure they are kept current on accident trends, regulatory changes, and other accident prevention activities.

Conduct assist, support and participate in the CAP/FAA accident prevention meetings, workshops, and clinics.

Other duties and responsibilities as needed.

RODNEY F. MOODY, Colonel, CAP
Commander

Supersedes WV Wing Supplement 1, 1 December 2000
